

Grand Canyon Rafting & Hiking Trip

Fall Line Ski Club is heading to the bottom of the Grand Canyon for a non-skiing adventure! This adventure will sell fast as this trip is open to the first 29 to sign-up. We'll start taking deposits on June 16th at Fall Line's Member Meeting at the Pennsauken Country Club (Marco's Restaurant). This is an All-Inclusive adventure for 7 days on the Colorado River starting 15 miles below Glen Canyon Dam in Northern Arizona. You will travel in one of two motorized rafts from Lees Ferry to Whitmore Wash -188 miles. You will experience whitewater rafting, hiking, exploring, viewing wildlife & scenery, learning canyon history, swimming & relaxing in a place few people will ever see or visit. Your adventure begins in Las Vegas where a chartered bus will whisk our group to the Cliff Dwellers Lodge in Marble Canyon, Arizona. This is your first night where you'll enjoy exploring, relaxing, dinner at the Lodge then off to bed for the van trip to Lees Ferry and the Colorado River!

If you enjoy camping, hiking, and the outdoors, this trip is for you. You'll experience the Grand Canyon the way few people do—from below, looking up. It's the kind of adventure you'll remember (and probably tell friends and family about). Everything is included and some items you get to keep: A dry "day" bag & "night" bag, life preserver, insulated mug, cot with sheets, pillow & ground cloth, tent & utensils/plates, and camp chair. You will be well fed with 3 meals each day including snacks & drinks. Each day you'll enjoy 3-4 hours on the water, guided hikes and exploring, etc. Join Fall Line Ski Club for an unforgettable getaway!

Contact your Group Leader, Mike Houlihan: houlilhanskier@outlook.com for more details, pricing, and how to sign up or go to: www.FallLine.org. Space is limited, so please don't wait long.

For anyone wondering: the average age on this trip is 58, and 15% of guests are over 70. You're not too old—come raft with Fall Line!

Dates: May 15th (pre-trip lodging) and May 16th –22nd, 2027 (on the river).
